The American Beaver is Oregon's state animal. Highly prized for its fur, it was overtrapped by early settlers, though it has been reestablished throughout the state. Oregon is known as the "Beaver State," and Oregon State University's athletic teams are called the "Beavers."

WAGONS

The Oregon Trail was too long and arduous for the Conestoga wagons commonly used in the eastern U.S. and on the Santa Fe Trail. Their 6,000 lb. freight capacity was larger than needed, and the large teams (8 to 10 animals) required could not navigate the tight corners often found on the Oregon Trail. Thus, prairie schooners were developed by wainwrights, with about 2,500 lbs. freight capacity and about 88 square feet of storage in a box 11 feet long, 4 feet wide, and 2 feet high, and which could easily be pulled by 4 to 6 oxen (cheaper and easier to train, but slower) or 6 to 10 mules. New wagons cost between $85 and $170. The canvas covers were doubled and treated with linseed oil to help keep out the rain, dust, and wind. The wooden wheels were protected with an iron rim, but the pioneers had to soak the wheels periodically to swell the wood so the iron "tires" would not fall off. Wagons sometimes broke down along the way, with broken axles or broken wagon tongues. The wagons had no springs, so almost nobody actually rode in them, as it was too dusty and rough, and also too hard on the livestock.

D20 Regionals

♠ It's not the handling of difficult hands that makes the winning player. There aren't enough of them. It's the ability to avoid messing up the easy ones.

- Alan Sontag

♥ The best available bid is often the least bad alternative.

- Jerry Helms

♦ I favor light opening bids. When you're my age, you're never sure that the bidding will get back around to you in time.

Hideous Hog Predictions

Bracket One Datloff (-1) over Doner: John Ashton's first ever morning session goes remarkably well. Rossmann (-4) over Creer: Ali Howard's southern charm beguiles Sharples and Marshall. Cremin (-3) over Vilhauer: The reflection off of Cheek and Hampson temporarily blinds the D20 District Director. Martindale (-2) over Tofte: Three real Idahoans and one honorary one deal locals a tough loss.

Bracket Two Neyhart (-2) over Maher: Kalamaty befalls strong southern Washington team. Olsen (-5) over Brackhahn: Ducks over Beaver(ton)s as usual. Casanova (-1) over Allen: Up and coming Portlanders outlast some of Vancouver's finest. Hill (-2) over Slegel: Walker, pride of the Rogue Valley, wows local heavies.

Bracket Three Ferguson (-3) over Stewart: Tri-City team ramping up for their Regional (October 14-20 in Kennewick WA) in style. Marks (-2) over Titus: The bracket's surviving Central Oregonian shows 'em how they do it on the dry side. Lackey (-4) over Knight: Mary Alice Seville, D20's Education Coordinator, has obviously learned a lot from the lectures she's set up at our Regionals. Cannon (-1) over Carr: You don't come all the way to Vancouver from the Warm Valley to lose, do you?
