SINGLE-SESSION 299er SWISS TEAMS (strat.) TBA

I want to sincerely thank you all for coming to the 2013 Oregon Trail Regional. I loved seeing so many cheerful energetic bridge players populating the tables. You won points; you were nice to each other; you were nice to the Directors; you enjoyed the treats, what more could I ask?

I hope you enjoyed the Daily Bulletins, although you have to stop giving the Editor such a bad time. She is NOT the Hideous Hog!! Matt Smith is awesome, isn't he? Of course the rest of the Directors help make him look good. Thanks to all of them. Thank you Diane Cullen, Flo Savage and Dwayne Brackhahn for running the hospitality desk all week and helping people find just the candy they wanted at the bottom of the barrel. The Partnership people led by Lynda Hirst were so busy every time I saw them, thanks so much! The caddies were awesome, probably partially because they have a great Caddy Master in Kathy Mather.

I want to apologize for a couple of things: to those of you who wore your dancing shoes on Friday instead of Thursday and for the freezing wind that blew on Tuesday. Come again next year! Join us in Eugene, July 22, in Seaside on September 30 and in Reno on December 26. Farewell, goodbye, auf Wiedersehen.....

TYPICAL DAYS ON THE TRAIL

On many days the wagon caravan would only travel ten to fifteen miles. On rainy and muddy days they might only travel one mile! It would take them five to seven days just to travel the distance we can drive a car in a single hour. The people would get up very early in the dark each morning in order to prepare for their daily travels. They would start the fire, prepare breakfast, and often prepare lunch too. After breakfast around 7 a.m. they would gather the livestock, reload the wagon, hitch up the oxen or mules, and start down the trail. Since the wagon was so bumpy, the pioneers who were not driving the wagon would walk behind or next to it. They would stop at lunchtime and rest for an hour or two, then travel on until four or five p.m. At night they would circle the wagons for protection. The women would fix dinner, and the men would prepare the livestock for the night. After supper they would gather around the campfires and sing, dance, tell stories, and visit. Scientists have found that certain mind exercises, such as counting and matching games, could improve memory. Staying engaged in a wide range of activities, including social and physical activities can help improve your memory and mental health.
