

OREGON HIGH DESERT REGIONAL

OMG! What a tournament! Won't you remember attending the first High Desert Regional in Sunriver, Oregon? District 20 was hopeful and optimistic and planned accordingly, but you came and we burst at the seams almost immediately. As of Saturday, it looks like it will be about 1,040 tables. Not bad.

In a party between sessions last night, the Bend Unit feted Nelda Linman, the driving force behind bringing a regional to the east side of the Cascades. Nelda, in turn wanted to give the credit away to her awesome team. So here they are again:

- ◆ Hospitality chair, Dee Cockfield, staffed the desk, bought the candy and visited merchants for discounts.
- ◆ Coffee maven, Nancy Serne, with the help of Diane Maffia, purchased supplies, rented urns, trained the sellers, set up the stand and made sure the coffee got made!
- ◆ Larry and Laura Smith did a wonderful job at the partnership desk, which was always well staffed.
- ◆ Lael Cooksley started her mornings early so the Daily Bulletins were there for the 9 am game and the coffee was plugged in.
- ◆ Shirley Weissenfluh had the challenging job of procuring and training caddies in a town that hasn't had a regional for 24 years. She also volunteered, or had her arm twisted to be the tournament photographer. (There is still time today to get a photo on the web or in the Trumpet!)
- ◆ Nelda chaired the affair, purchased the car loads of daily treats and made sure everyone was happy.

Thank you Nelda, thank you chairpeople and thank you Bend Unit!!! Without the help of the local unit, the District could not hold such fabulous tournaments. Thank you so much.

Thank you to the Directing Staff too, led by Matt Smith from Victoria, BC. He met the space challenges with the help of Brian Russell (Portland), Jeff Jacob (Vancouver), Jeanne van den Mieracker (local Bend Dutch girl), Pam Hughes (formerly of Bend, now Roseville, CA) and Paul O'Brien (Vancouver). They were sooo awesome in so many ways; a joy for any Tournament Manager to work with.

I hope you enjoyed the pre-dealt hands in the pair games, a new District 20 policy. David Taylor did those for you, a first for him and the District.. He also took on the publication of the Daily Bulletin for the first time. All this in addition to bringing the equipment and running the bookstore! Thanks David.

Thank you to all of you for coming and playing and having fun. All your positive feedback might just go to my head! We are already in talks with Sunriver to book the resort for 2016 on the week after Mother's Day. I plan to see you there!
