

Emerald Empire Regional

Thank you so much for coming to Eugene and making this another outstanding District 20 tournament.

The Valley River Inn helped us beat the amazing heat after they fixed the blown fuse on the roof Tuesday. I thought the mornings and evenings were spectacular outside; warm enough to enjoy the great Oregon outdoors. Thanks Inn for fixing the ice machines!

The local unit, led by Judy Nevell did a wonderful job with Hospitality and Partnerships. I give a special thank you to Leigh Wells and crew for working so hard and all your successes at the Partnership desk. Jan Ward made sure there was someone to answer questions at the Hospitality table all week; thank you! I enjoyed seeing the beautiful flowers in the foyer; maybe we need to have a traveling florist from Eugene! Sherri Morgan really tracked down the winners with Don Marsh's help, so there are many great photos from the events. Check them out on line and in the upcoming issue of the District 20 Trumpet. Thank you so much.

I heard many good comments about the speakers and the headliner, Larry Cohen, was very well received. I want to sincerely thank you Margi Redden and Mary Alice Seville for major work on these important events. They do so much for the success of our tournaments.

Thank you and Bon Voyage to Brian Russell, the Director in Charge. Brian is moving to North Carolina so we won't be seeing him in the future. He was so ably assisted by Matt Smith, John Gram, Jeff Jacob and McKenzie Myers that the tournament went very smoothly.

Please come to my last tournament as manager: the Oregon Coast Regional in Seaside, starting on September 28. I will be assisted by the new manager, Judy Davis, who will want to say hello to you all!

Pick up a flyer for Seaside before you leave today as well as one for the Oregon Trail Regional in February and the next High Desert Regional in Sunriver next May. In Seaside, we will have information on our brand new tournament, the Great Potato Regional to be held next August in Boise, Idaho.

Safe travels!! Thank you again for coming.
