

Jack Marsh

John “Jack” R. Marsh was born July 7, 1935, in Portland, Ore., and passed away December 16, 2020, after a short illness.

After graduating from Milwaukie High School in 1953, he joined the U.S. Marine Corps during the Korean conflict, receiving an honorable discharge. He enrolled in the University of Oregon, joined the Lambda Chi fraternity and graduated in 1958 with a B.S. in Business and a passion for Oregon football. He followed his beloved Ducks, having season tickets and attending a Rose Bowl Game (Go Ducks!)

It was at Oregon that he met Dorothy Schray, whom he married in 1956. They remained married until her death in 2016. After living in Northern California for a brief period, they made their permanent home in Portland. Jack owned an insurance brokerage.

He excelled in handball, having won numerous state championships in his age groups and was competitive at the regional and national levels. He was one of the top bridge players in Portland, winning many local tournaments with a variety of partners and teammates, and he achieved Gold Life Master status with ACBL.

Jack is survived by his daughters, Karen Marsh, Diane Marsh, and Carolyn Marsh; as well as two grandsons, Nicholas Flores and Adam Flores.

