

Tom Young

A favorite and well-respected member of the Vancouver Bridge Club, Tom Young, passed on January 1, 2021. He suffered from a faulty heart valve. Mary Lou Mansfield, his partner for the past 20 years, reports that he had a splendid 97+ year journey, keeping full mental acuity until the end.

He missed playing bridge when his health made it impractical to come to the club. One of his last appearances at the club was at the Nonagenarian Party in late 2019.

His ashes were sent to Scotland to be placed next to his Aunt and Uncles that raised him.
